

PRESENTED BY NOBLE'S
DIRECTOR OF THERAPIES
PATRICK JAMISON

HELPING YOUR TEEN NAVIGATE DATING'S UPS & DOWNS

Relationship Building

Thur | Feb 15 | 2024

11:30 am - 12:30 pm EST

FREE via Zoom

RSVP

Email CFL@mynoblelife.org by 4 pm 02/13/24
to receive the Zoom link

Learn more about Noble's Center for Family Leadership

OUR PRESENTER

PATRICK JAMISON, LMHC | THERAPY SERVICES DIRECTOR With over 25 years experience in the field, Patrick oversees the provision of therapy services at Noble while also working one-on-one with individuals we serve. In his capacity as leader for his department, he works closely with Noble staff to ensure appropriate supports are in place to help individuals achieve their work & life goals. His service areas include ADHD, Family Intervention, Men's Support Issues, Sexual Abuse, Domestic Abuse, Bi-Polar, MRDD, Employment Support, Trauma Support, Group & Individual Therapy, Cognitive Awareness Approach, Person Centered Approach and Family Therapy. He earned his Masters Degree in Psychology & is certified as a Licensed Mental Health Counselor.

Expanding opportunities & enhancing the quality of life for people with disabilities & their families through individualized services ■ mynoblelife.org ■ @mynoblelife
Hosted by Center for Family Leadership & made possible through generosity of Harriet P. Irsay Endowment Fund. 02/15/24