

HOSTED BY

You have the right to participate in your child's education. In this forum, you'll learn the basics about Article 7 & how to apply it to your family's situation—including referral & evaluation, why the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) is important, your child's placement & dispute resolution.

THE SPECIAL EDUCATION PROCESS

Understanding IEP Article VII

Thur | Oct 10 | 2024

11:30 am - 12:30 pm EST

FREE via Zoom

Learn more about Noble.

OUR PRESENTER

Special Education Liaison CAMILLE SVIHLIK of IN*SOURCE has decades of personal & professional experience in Special Education & working with families who have children with disabilities. In a multitude of roles, Camille has advocated for disability rights at every level of government. She is also a former special education teacher & administrator for Indianapolis Public Schools, and the grandmother of two boys who have ASD. She has devoted her personal & professional energy to policy change, education & advocacy on behalf of thousands of Indiana families.

— RSVP

Email CFL@mynoblelife.org by 4 pm 10/08/24 so Susan can send you the Zoom link

Expanding opportunities & enhancing the quality of life for people with disabilities & their families through individualized services ■ mynoblelife.org ■ @mynoblelife

Hosted by Center for Family Leadership & made possible through generosity of Harriet P. Irsay Endowment Fund. 10/10/24