OUR PRESENTER

ALVIN ALVIAR | Alvin serves as the INDATA Reuse Lead at Easterseals Crossroads, where he & his team refurbish donated computers & assistive technology devices to give away to Indiana residents with disabilities. Alvin holds a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science & has spent much of his IT career as a COBOL programmer & analyst, specializing in IBM mainframes & databases. He has worked with major corporations like Ford Motor Company & Pfizer Inc., contributing to their Corporate Enterprise Resource Planning systems as a Systems Integration Engineer & providing technical support. Alvin's expertise spans IBM mainframe OS, Unix, Microsoft Windows & Apple Mac OSX operating systems. He stepped in to help their struggling IT team at ESC as Technical Support Lead before coming back to the Assistive Technology division, where he now enjoys a more fulfilling role.
